All men search for truth.

On a lonely island

Or within the mass of men,

Each searches for the key to unlock his ignorance.

The wise man,

who knows himself,

Leads the way to truth

and others follow.

The sameness of our directions

Spins silver threads,

Weaving a web of closeness.

Catching, holding, examining the truth,

In silence, we find ourselves

remembered in the strands of what has passed before.

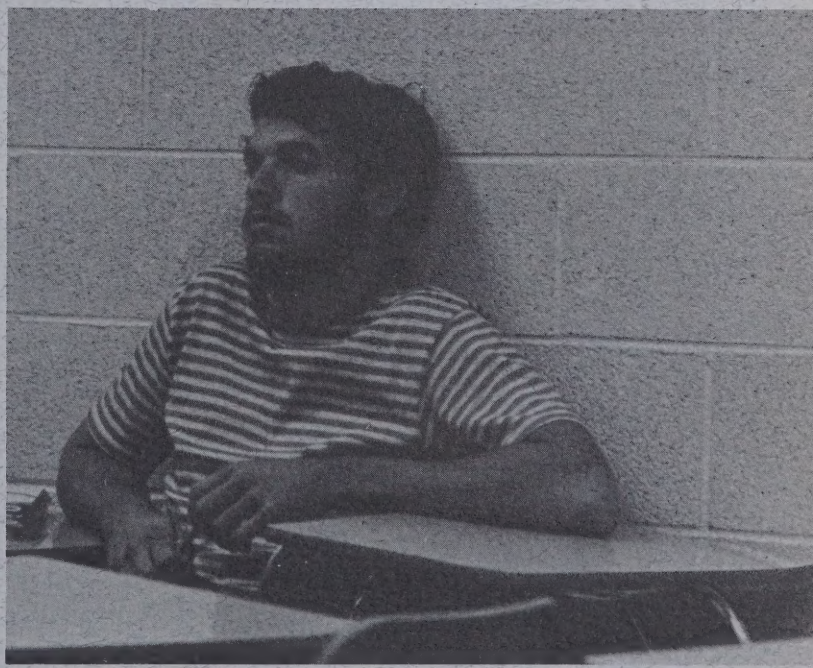
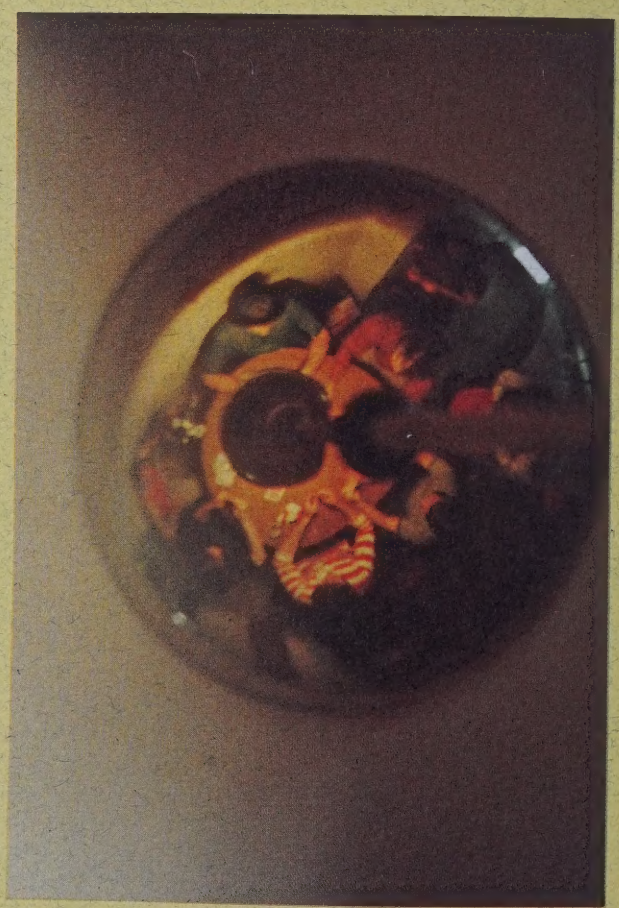
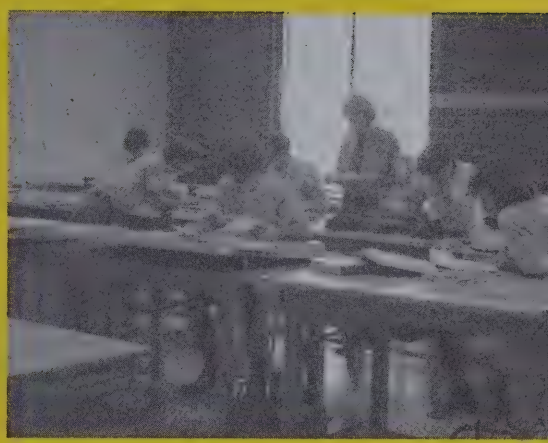
The truth is given to no one.
It is sought,
cornered, and lost again.
Man spends his entire life
searching for it.
Some fail, some succeed.
But
once he has discovered it-
He is never the same again.





We search for our identity among people.



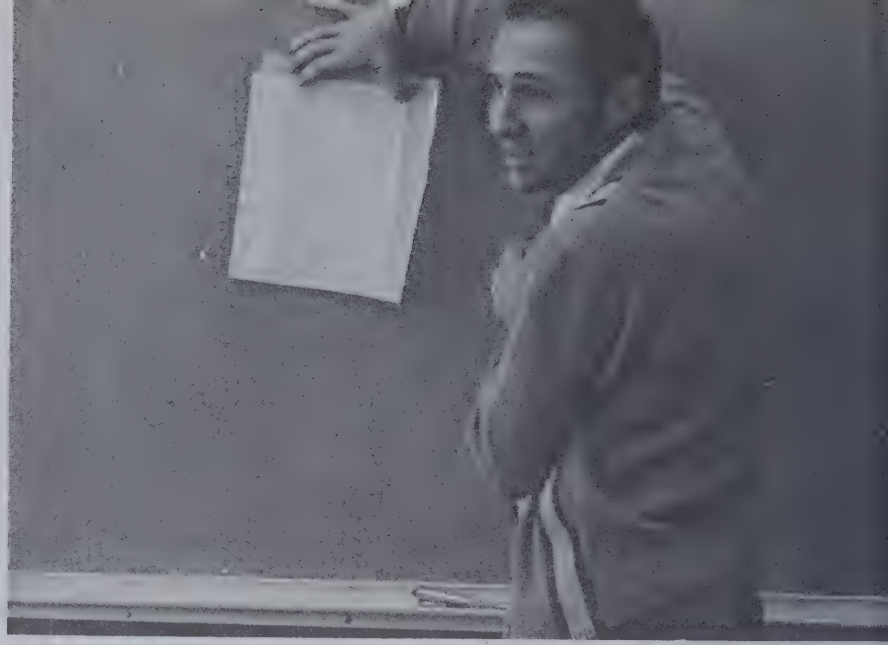
We compare

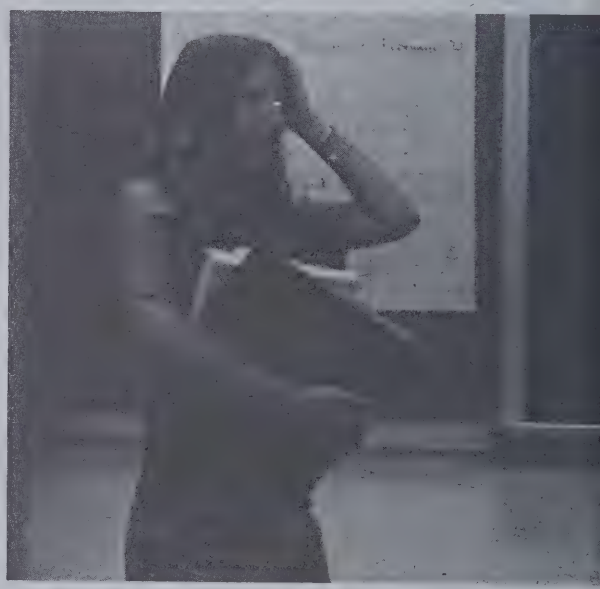
and analyze

what we see,

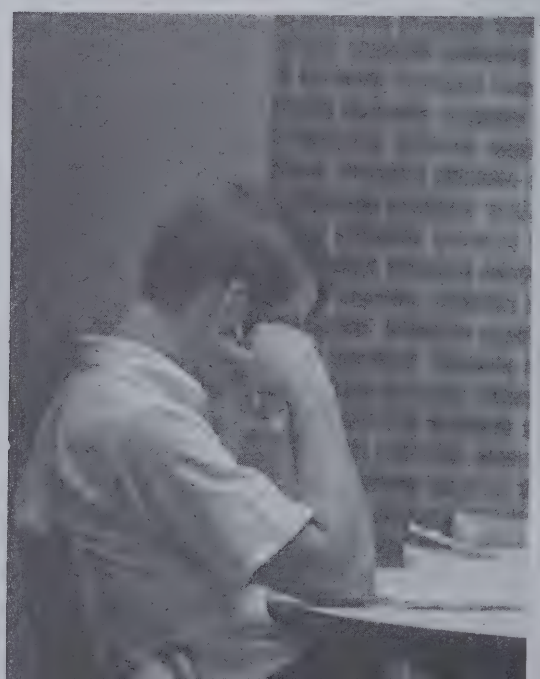
what we hear,

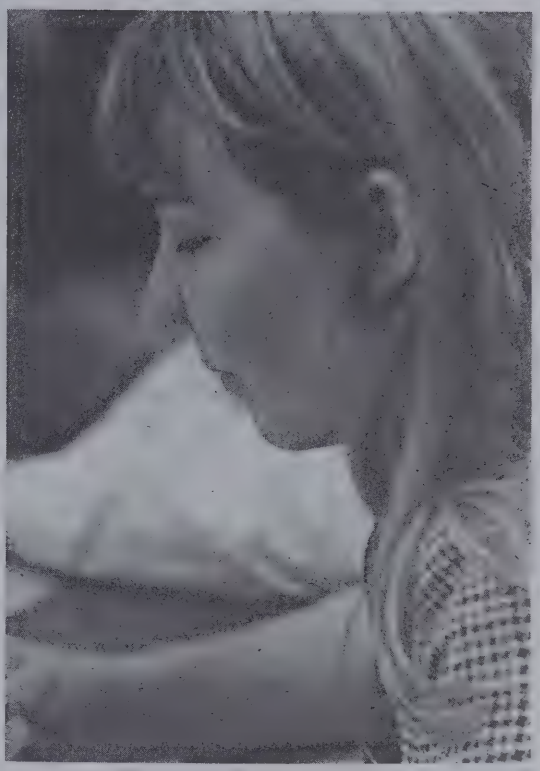
what we feel,

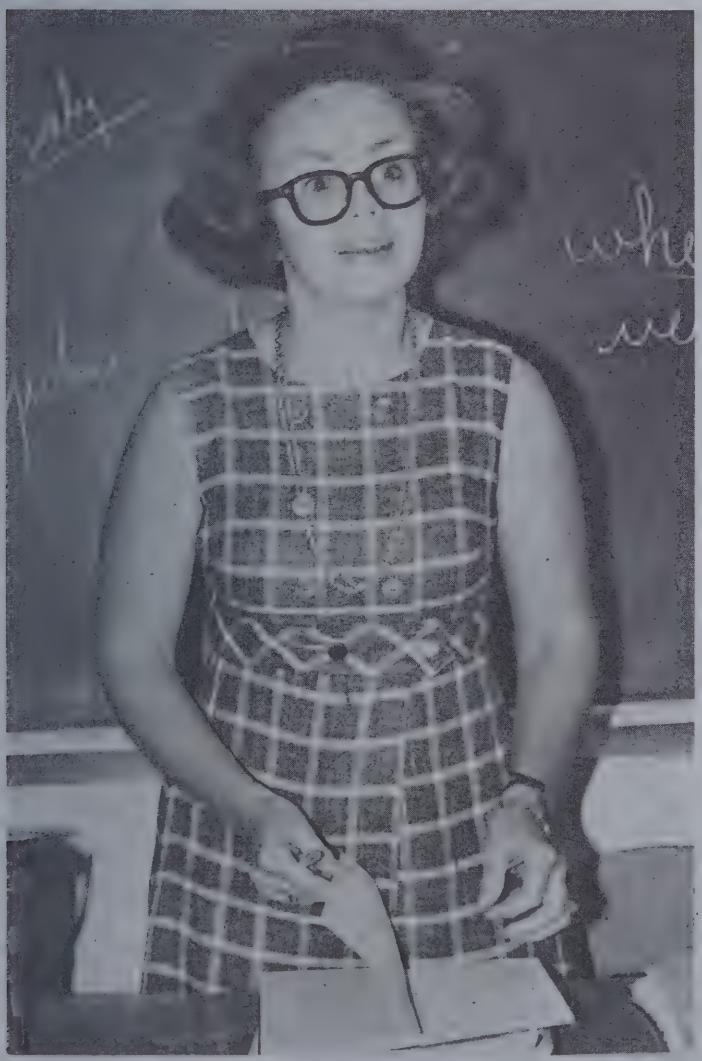


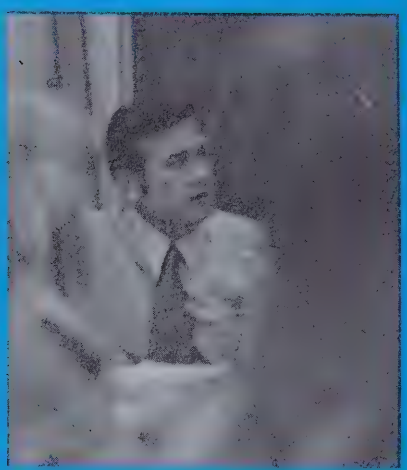


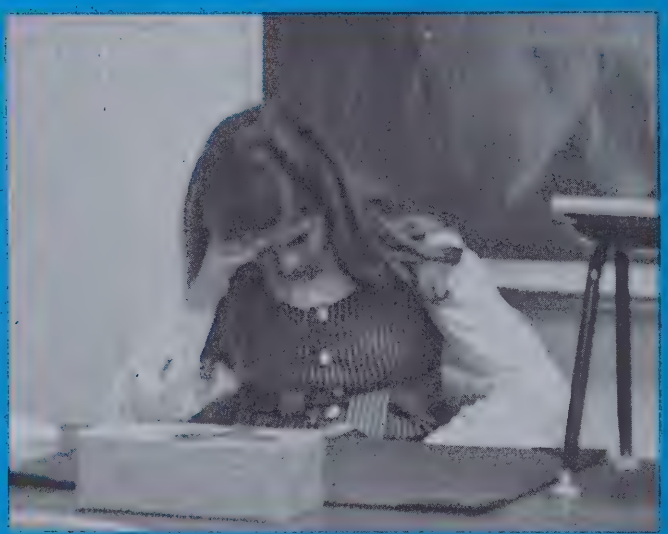
and why we think.



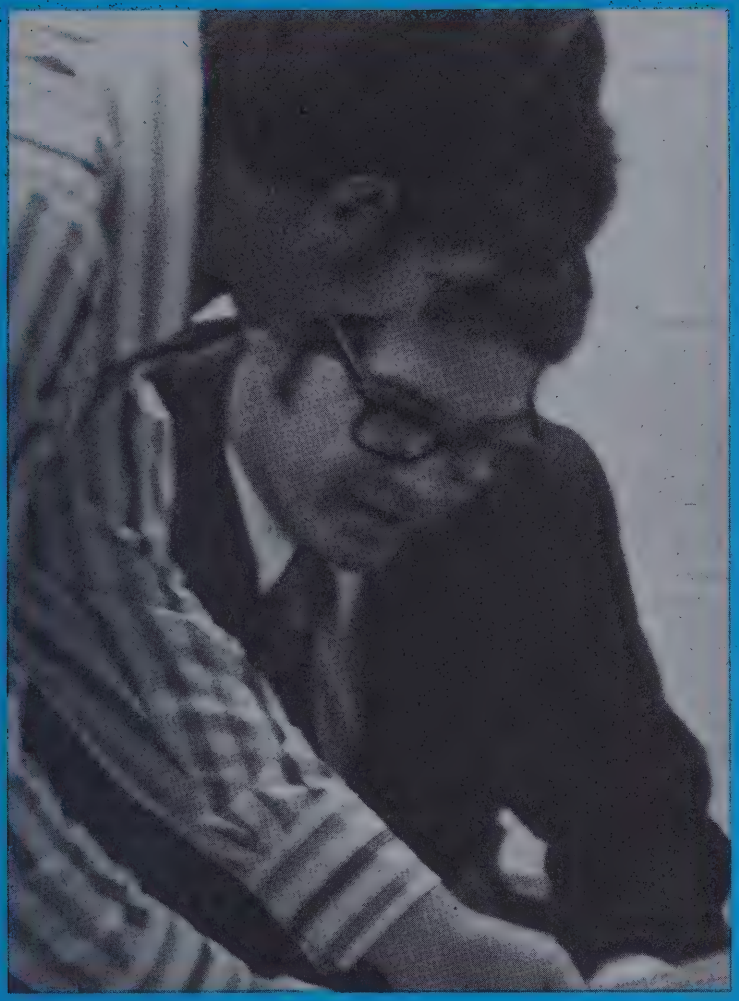








Through the Age of Enlightenment and Reason,



We
surround ourselves with the philosophies of profound men,
As we are engulfed in the thoughts of the past
And of the present.
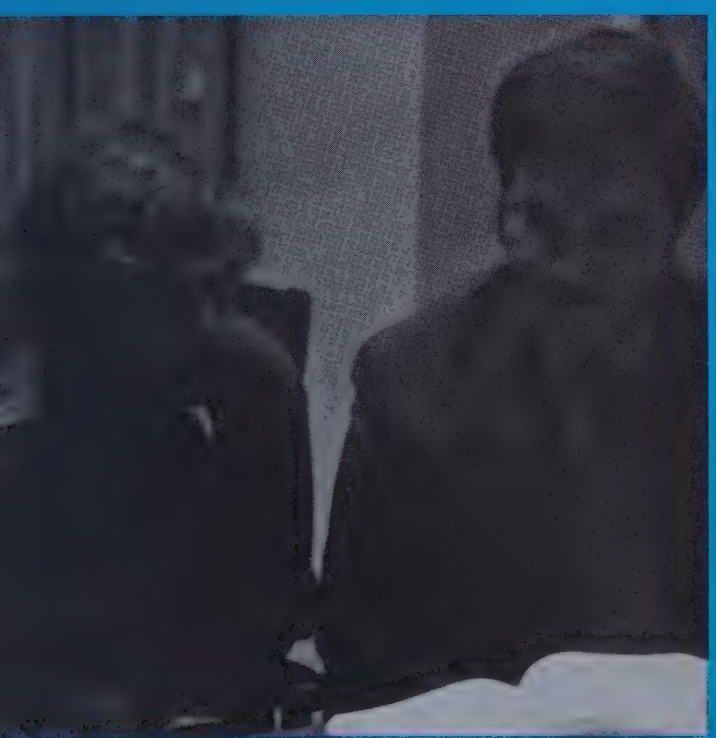
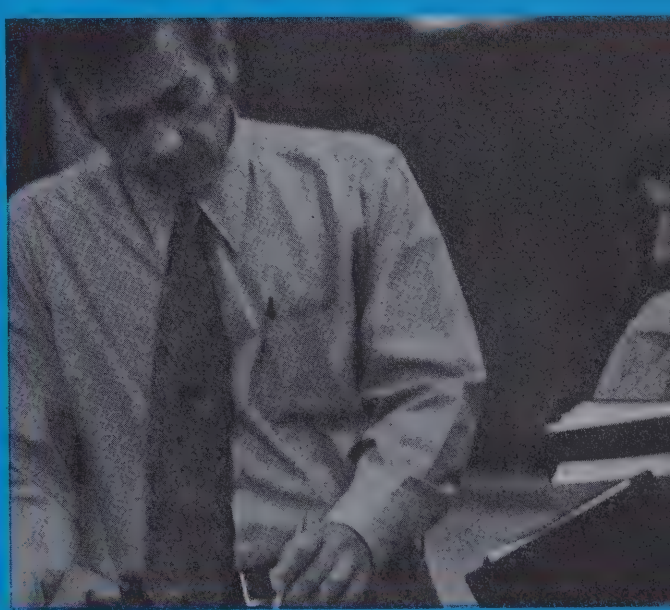
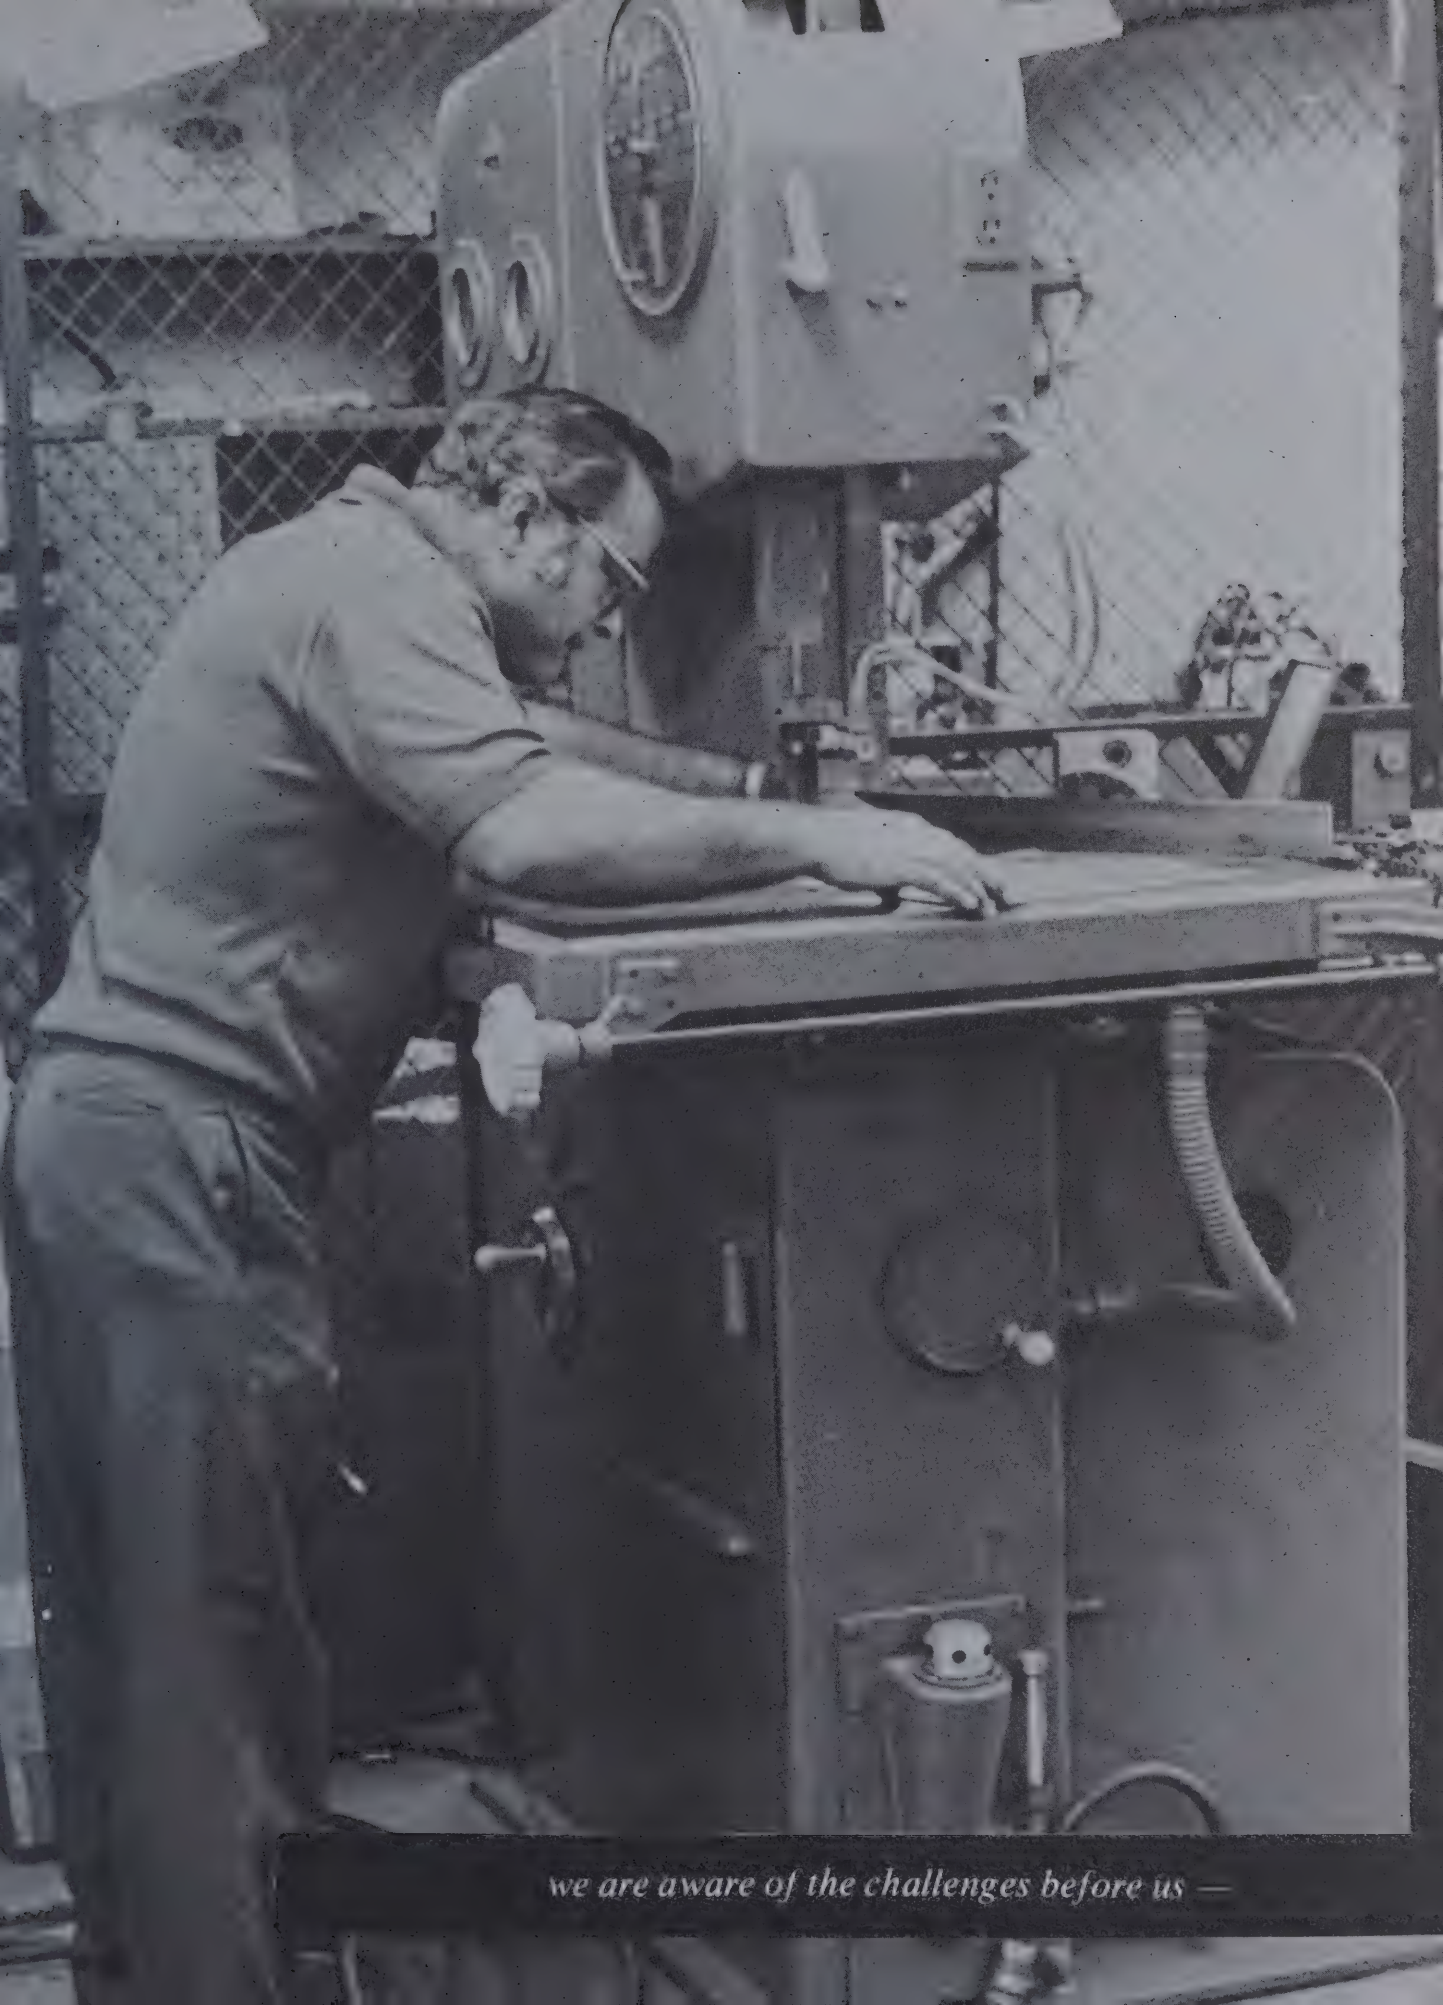
SLW





Involved in our world,



we are aware of the challenges before us —

ELIZABETH ANN HOLBROOKS

We, the Staff of the 1972 Cavalier, Dedicate our Book to
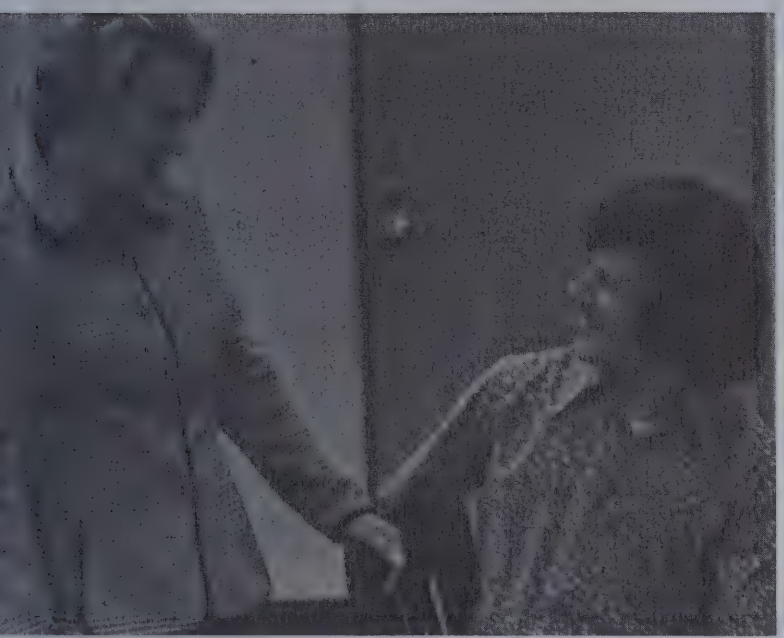
Elizabeth Ann Holbrooks



Isn't that right, Miss Holbrooks?

Her jovial smile has turned many a dull class into something special. Dedicated to her students and the art of teaching, she stands proudly among those who are in search of truth.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever; Its loveliness increases; it will never pass into nothingness; but still keep a bower quiet for us, and a sleep full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

Projects: (SMILE! — Code Word of the Year)

Forty-one members began the year on August 30, 1971 in Room 110 at 10:00. And what a year was experienced by the 1972 Freshman Advisory Council! With high hopes and tremendous enthusiasm, the Council worked hard to meet the needs of the growing DC3 Freshman Class. Of course, the Council was always willing to go out of its way to make Registration easier for everyone. Many new programs were started for the benefit of all DC3 students:

1. The V.I.F. Program was established to honor outstanding members of the Freshman Class in each of the three curriculums.
2. The Council helped to set up a Club Session during the Fall Orientation. They also served refreshments to the incoming Freshman Class after they had completed a hectic Orientation.
3. The Council set up a Buddy System to tutor students needing help with any subject.
4. The Council also sponsored the Placement Day held on February 15, 1972.
5. Council members helped with the SGA elections and the Bond Election. For the Bond Election, members called students and encouraged them to vote in favor of the Bond which will aid the expansion of DC3.
6. The Council also sponsored Activity Forms to be filled out by all students and to be placed in the permanent folders.
7. At the year's end, a tired group of Smiles had somehow remained intact. This group, with each quarters' V.I.F.'s, enjoyed a banquet and a well deserved rest after a full year.

Cavalier Club 1971-1972

It takes many long hours to put together an annual, especially if you are attempting to present original ideas. This year, the annual began with a jam session where we discussed education, especially our education at DC3. The result was a theme as unique and as deep as human life itself. Here is our attempt to portray our search for truth as well as the search of others.

Marshals-1971-1972

SOPHOMORES

During our two years at Davidson, the search for truth has caused us to review our thoughts and actions in light of the ever changing environment around us. We have seen the establishment of an intramural sports program, fought for the passage of a million-dollar bond issue, and acquired a multi-purpose building. As we furnished the college with presidents, editors, and marshals, we gained an insight into the problems on our campus and were challanged to solve them. But now — for the Class of '72, DC3 and the experiences there are only memories.

FRESHMEN

Our freshman year presented us with many new responsibilities. With Orientation behind us, we quickly prepared for the onslaught of tight schedules, tougher courses, and new faces. At times we were bewildered by Farthing's "Fat Fist Method," Steelman's Accounting, and Burkhart's "Steps in Composition," But by the end of the year we felt completely at ease with both professors and classmates.

Letter from the Editor:

The 1972 Cavalier is, I believe, a unique book. First, it is almost entirely our own creative work. Very few quotes have been used. The poetry in the theme presentations is original work, the artwork is a product of our art editor, and the unusual photographic effects are creations by our photographers. Second, as we searched for a theme that was meaningful to us, we disregarded the traditional annual themes. We decided to center our work around the simple, yet basic element in any educational experience — the search for truth. Third, this book is dedicated to a unique individual — an individual with the depth and dignity that we hope is embodied within this annual.

As I look back over my year as Editor of the Cavalier, I see many frustrating yet enlightening situations. I remember being faced with 600 pictures of smiling faces and no names! I remember working Thanksgiving, the day after exams, and Christmas holidays to meet the publishers' deadlines. I learned how to work in the dark room, crop pictures, organize material, and manage time. I found out that when you leave a name off a page the entire page must be redrawn!! If errors have been made, please accept my humble apology.

Often, as my weary legs carried me home late at night, I felt as if the annual would never be completed. But it was; it was because help was given when it was asked for. For this help, I give my sincerest thanks:

To: Judy Grubb, Gail Jenkins, Dewey Brantley, Freddie Parnell, and Ronnie Hulin – who put up with me when I seemed impossible and who gave up their holidays to work on the annual

To: Bill Cross – who spent many long hours in the dark room developing pictures for me

To: The Cavalier Staff of 1972, the faculty and administration – whose co-operation resulted in this book

To: Judy Minkley, my friend, whose loving smile gave me the encouragement I needed when the problems seemed too much for me to handle

To: Mrs. Burkhart – for her help with the copy work in this book

To: Mrs. Aycock, my advisor, who allowed me to produce the kind of annual of which I can be proud

To: Mr. Jim Wilhelm, my publisher, who always answered my questions and who made extra trips to help me meet the deadlines . I extend my thanks.

But most of all to you: Davidson County Community College — who have remained my friend and home this year — the long hours I spent with you have given me so much. I just hope that this annual will mean as much to YOU, the DC3 that I have come to know, as you have meant to me . . . . . .
